Older People and HIV, an educational packet that compiles resources and information including, information on HIV and older people, aging with HIV, Older Adult Clients of the Ryan White HIV/AIDS Program, addressing health care and social support needs of people aging with HIV, and Infographics from AIDSVu.
https://www.neaetc.org/files/attachment/attachment/7378/EP%20-%20Older%20People%20and%20HIV.pdf

*Take a look at this HIV Care Continuum from AIDVu.org that outlines the stages of care older people go through who are diagnosed with HIV https://aidsvu.org/wp-content/uploads/2021/09/06-CARE-CONTINUUM.png

Aging Positively, Bringing HIV/AIDS into the Aging Services Mainstream. This report is an introduction to funders, highlighting the diverse experiences of older adults living with HIV/AIDS. It brings to light ideas for organizations to use to improve care and quality of life, including HIV testing efforts.
https://www.giaging.org/documents/AgingPositively_GIA_HIV_aging_guide_FINAL_190906.pdf

*Locating HIV testing sites may be a barrier for elderly adults, the HIV Testing Sites and Care Services Locator allows people to search for testing sites as well as other care services such as housing provider.
https://locator.hiv.gov

*Transportation may be another barrier to receiving HIV testing among elderly adults, the Eldercare Locator can refer people to the local Area Agency on Aging. Most AAAs will provide transportation or referrals for older adults and their family members.
https://eldercare.acl.gov/Public/Index.aspx

LGBT Older Adults, HIV and the Affordable Care Act, an issue brief, published by Services and Advocacy for Gay, Lesbian, Bisexual, and Transgender Elders (SAGE), covering HIV among aging individuals and the impact of the ACA on preventative services and coverage for LGBT people, 65+ people, and people living with HIV (PLWH).
https://www.sageusa.org/wp-content/uploads/2018/05/sageusa-brief-lgbt-hiv-aging-affordable-care-act.pdf

Use Your Voice- Addressing HIV Stigma in Older Women
The AIDS Institute posted a video for National HIV/AIDS and Aging Awareness Day, where women speak on HIV stigma among older women.
https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=41np3zbOUWQ&t=62s

HIV and Aging: Stigma, complexities, challenges

Harry Breaux, Long-term Survivor activist with Grantmakers in Aging, and Moving Ahead Together Program, introducing his perspective on older people living with HIV and the associated stigma, complexities, and challenge. Learn more at www.GIAging.org/HIV-aging

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=-VoI4xQsiKQ